- The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Unless directed otherwise by the probation officer, the defendant must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where the defendant resides within 72 hours of release from imprisonment.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, the defendant will receive instructions from the Court or the probation officer about how and when the defendant must report to the probation officer, and the defendant must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. The defendant must not own, possess, or have under the defendant's control a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon.
4. The defendant must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district without first getting permission from the Court or the probation officer.
5. The defendant must follow the instructions of the probation officer designed to make sure the defendant complies with the conditions of supervision.
6. The defendant must answer truthfully the questions asked by the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision, subject to his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination.
7. The defendant must work full-time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant does not have full-time employment, the defendant must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant plans to change where they work or anything about their work (such as position or job responsibilities), the defendant must tell the probation officer at least ten calendar days before the change. If telling the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must tell the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
8. The defendant must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If the defendant plans to change where the defendant lives or anything about the defendant's living arrangements (such as the people the defendant lives with), the defendant must tell the probation officer at least ten calendar days before the change. If telling the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must tell the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
9. If the defendant knows someone is committing a crime, or is planning to commit a crime, the defendant must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person in any way.
10. The defendant must allow the probation officer to visit the defendant at reasonable times, at home or other reasonable locations, and the defendant must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of supervision that the probation officer observes in plain view.
11. If the defendant is arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, the defendant must tell the probation officer within 72 hours.
12. The defendant must not make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as an informer or a special agent without first getting the permission of the Case 2:98-cr-00060-LA Filed 04/09/20 Page 4 of 7 Document 625
